THE LATEST WAR NEWS.

Desperate Encounters Along the Baltic—Italian Submarine Sunk.

Nothing has developed in Galicia to stem the advance toward Lemberg of the Austro-German forces, and Berlin claims that the Russians are retreating over their own frontier, meaning an invasion of Russian territory at a new point.

Dispatches state that the Italian outposts have arrived in sight of Trieste.

A series of desperate encounters is described by the French War Office to the north of Arras, along the battle front in France. Shells to the number of 300,000 were poured into the ranks and trenches of the Germans, and at various points the contending forces fought with bayonet and grenade. The French have carried several lines of trenches, and advanced in all directions toward Soissons.

On the naval side of the war an Austrian submarine has sunk the Italian submarine Medusa, and an unoffensive report from Athens credits a British underwater boat with sending to the bottom in the Dardanelles three Turkish transports loaded with German munitions. A German submarine has sunk the British coasting steamer Treadoff of the Welsh coast and sent the steamer Turnwell into Milford Haven badly damaged.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

SUITS LIQUOR INTERESTS

Only Chance For Temperance Man and Measures Now Is Election of McChesney As Governor.

The nomination and election of H. V. McChesney as governor of Kentucky is now the only opportunity left to the temperance people of the state to have temperance made at the heart of the state government. According to the Lexington Herald, whose reporters were on the ground during the whole proceedings, the Republican State platform convention which was held at Lexington Tuesday was absolutely dominated and controlled by the representatives of the liquor interests. Not only was a resolution offered by Judge O'Neal to include submission of a vote on statewide prohibition in the platform, even down to the convention, but a motion to endorse the action of the two republican congressmen from Kentucky who voted nationwide prohibition at the last session.

Dr. Ben L. Bruner withdrew from the race for governor and the nomination of Ed Morrow of Somerset for governor is assured and it is said that E. S. Hellum, of Middleboro, is slated for the lieutenant governor nomination. Four years ago Judge O'Neal refused to allow liquor to be on the ticket with him because Hellum was known as a friend of the liquor interests.

The Lexington Herald gives the names of prominent representatives of the liquor interests who were on hand for the republican convention, and then tells the story briefly as follows:

Among the men prominent in the liquor industry of Kentucky, who were present at the Republican State convention, Tuesday, of within touch of the convention and its movements were as follows:

Lawrence Reichert, representing the Frank Fehr Brewing Company, of Louisville.

Wiedemann Brewing Company, of Newmont.

Dick Dehoney, representing Heermans Brothers, wholesale liquor dealers and distillers, of Louisville.

Edmund Taylor, of E. H. Taylor & Sons, distillers of Frankfort.

Harry Meyers, of Covington, recognized representative of the liquor people in the House at Frankfort last winter and their leader on the floor.

Wood G. Dunlap, of the Old Pepper Distillery, of Lexington.

Under the complete domination of the liquor interests of the State and with but one candidate before its primary for Governor, Dr. Ben L. Bruner, of Louisville, having withdrawn at the last minute of the convention last night, the Republican Party of Kentucky, represented by more than 2,000 delegates in session at the Ben H. Theatre, adopted a platform declaring in favor of the continuance of the present county unit law, after it rejected amendments offered by Judge Edward O'Neal, of Frankfort, providing for the submission to the people of a statewide prohibition amendment, and the making of the shipment of liquor into local option territory for sale a felony and amendment offered by Dr. Ben L. Bruner, of Louisville, one providing for the giving to the Governor of power to remove Mayors and Sheriffs for non-enforcement of the laws in their cities or counties and the other endorsing the principle of nationwide prohibition.

The platform also contains a plank favoring the submission of an amendment providing for woman suffrage to the people of the state. Judge O'Neal made an earnest and vigorous plea for his amendment, saying that he had been criticized for advocating these amendments with Senator Beckham because the latter was a democrat and pointing out the fact that many of the members of that convention were meeting in the meeting the adoption of the platform as submitted the same measures advocated by Henry Watterson and Oswald Stanley and his News, and the seditious keepers of the Kentucky O'Neal declared that, using the right he conceded to others, to select their associates, he preferred to consort with fleckham rather than the Democrats he had named who were so unanimously and thoroughly for the county unit now and who had at last been shown when O'Neal wanted it endorsed four years ago.

Hon. George D. Florence, of Stanford, was highly honored at the convention held the 8th district member of the Resolution Committee, which wrote the party platform.

FRANK TO KNOW HIS FATE BY SATURDAY

Gov. Slaton of Georgia Takes Case Under Consideration—Strong Effort For Commutation.

Leo Frank's final appeal for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment was completed at Atlanta Wednesday night and his fate was placed in the hands of Gov. Slaton, who took the petition under advisement with the announcement that he would make his decision as early as possible. It is not expected before this afternoon or Saturday. Tuesday next is the date set for Frank's execution for the murder of Mary Phagan and if Gov. Slaton turns down the petition the history of the noted case will come to an end then.

The conclusion of the proceedings before Gov. Slaton exhausted the last resource which Frank may employ to save his life. The decision, for or against commutation, will bring to an end a remarkable series of legal contests in State and Federal courts to clear Frank's name and proceedings before the Georgia State Prison Commission and Gov. Slaton.

The session was occupied by William M. Howard, in his closing argument in Frank's behalf. Howard was interrupted frequently by questions from the Governor on points of evidence and by Senator Torrey, who took issue with statements as to what had been brought out in the trial.

Mr. Howard attacked the testimony of State witnesses and sought to convince the Governor of alleged inconsistencies and contradictions in the testimony and affidavits of Jim Conley, a negro, who served a prison term as an accessory after the murder. He asserted repeatedly that Conley's story was an invention of his own mind designed to divert suspicion from himself.

"Take the name of Leo Frank out of this case," declared Howard, "forget all that has passed in the last two years, give me a public trial that is a clean slate and put this case in any county in Georgia and I will acquit this defendant in thirty minutes."

However declared that by the testimony of the State's witnesses the record showed Mary Phagan was not in the pencil factory at the time the prosecution ended Frank, killed by her. He also declared the record showed that the girl had not arrived at Frank's office at the time Conley in his testimony had said he already had disposed of the body.

McCHESNEY IN WEST END

Democratic Candidate For Governor To Speak At Hustonville

Learning that Hon. H. V. McChesney, the temperance candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, was billed to speak at Danville next Monday county court day there, a number of his supporters in Lincoln got busy and arranged for his appearance at Hustonville that night. Quite a number from Lincoln will be in Danville, where they will be speaking there Monday afternoon and they will go with him to Hustonville, and hear him that night also. He will speak at the opera house at Hustonville at half past seven o'clock and all are invited to hear him. His studies especially.

Mr. McChesney will probably be in Stanford a short while Saturday morning this week as he goes to Lancaster for a speech to morrow afternoon. Hon. James I. Hamilton is the manager of his campaign in Garrard, and he reports that a massive crowd will be on hand to hear Mr. McChesney, who is an eloquent, quipster and one of the best stumpers in the State. He is being greeted by large crowds wherever he speaks. His friends who have heard the bitter and just attacks which Hon. J. W. Newman has been making upon him, say that he will in all probability have something to say in reply at Lancaster. Plans are being made to have Mr. McChesney speak at Stanford a little later in the campaign, and also at Crab Orchard.

Three Big Stakes at K. of P. Fair.

There will be three big stakes shown at the Knights of Pythias Fair which begins August 18, and continues three days. The first is a stake of $100, which is divided into five moneys. This is always an interesting ring and with the good amount offered in premiums, it should this year surpass all other. The next stake is for saddle stallions, mares or geldings, any age, and for this $500 is hung divided into six moneys. The third is for harness stallions, mares or geldings, and the purse is $250, with five moneys. The entries to each of these close on July 1st. Entries are now coming in and lots of them are expected within the next ten days. Those wishing entry blanks should write to the secretary, who will forward them by return mail. Bear in mind the stakes close July 1st.

To Vote on Bond Issue.

The I. J. stated Tuesday that the people of this county would likely have the opportunity of voting on a bond issue for the improvement and maintenance of roads and it was right in its prediction. The fiscal court met yesterday and on motion of Squire Fields and seconded by Squire Petrey, an election was ordered called to vote on the issuance of $130,000 in bonds. The whole court favors the bond issue and if there are enough petitioners favoring the proposition the election will be held on Sept. 18. The court will issue a card to the public in the next few days and it will appear in the Tuesday's issue. Wait and read it before making up your mind on the important question.

Out On Parole.

Less Gregory, who was convicted some three or four years ago of the charge of wild and malicious shooting and given one to five years in the pen, and for robbery at the same time was given from two to ten years, has been paroled by Gov. McCreary. Gregory, with others, held up and shot Messrs. Hatt and Ballard, tobacco raisers of the Highland section, who were returning from Danville, where they had sold their tobacco. The case created a great excitement at the time and soldiers were brought here to prevent the work of a mob, which it was feared would be formed for the purpose of taking Gregory and others out of jail and venting their wrath on them.

The Republican Convention.

The republican State convention, dominated entirely by the liquor interests, met at Lexington Tuesday and promulgated a platform with the evident intent of catching votes "a-coming and a-going." Judged by numbers and assumed enthusiasm, one could think that the delegates really thought they could smother the viands of the pie counter, but we verily believe that instead of tasting any of them they will gnaw a file, or rather a bone.

Omitting reference to the usual denunciation of democratic measures and administration, the only two planks of the crazy quirk production are those which regard woman suffrage and the liquor question. Expressly reserving the right to vote as they see fit, the document claims to favor the submission of a woman's suffrage amendment in 1917. In regard to the method of dealing with the liquor question, the interests would accept no equivocation and a straight-out declaration for the county law was made, after claiming the responsibility for credit for finally placing the law on the statute books. Judge O'Rear and others fought hard to get a State-wide declaration, but the old know his master's crib and defeated it by a vote of 2,104 1/2 to 1,622 1/2.

This great unanimity was shown also in favor of E. P. Morrow, who was accorded such an ovation that Dr. Bruner, the other candidate for governor, precipitately withdrew after his amendment for nation-wide prohibition was defeated by a practically similar vote.

Some people profess to think that the action of the republicans will necessarily make the democrats declare for State-wide, but it strikes us that they will be wise in doing what they think is right, regardless of the action of the republicans. If it is the sentiment of the majority of the delegates to the democratic convention that State-wide prohibition should be adopted and they regard it best for the people and the party, it should be declared, without reference to the action of any other party or set of men. Let the democrats act with wisdom and discretion and the whisky crowd at Lexington will be put to flight and all its manufactured enthusiasm for naught, as we are confident it will be.

Theatrical managers the country over are going on record as being opposed to profanity on the stage. It is a pity they do not prohibit rather than oppose the silly, not to say indecent habit. It is to the discredit of people generally that profanity brings laughter when used in public places. Somebody has said that the use of coarse language is a sure sign of a limited vocabulary. That may or may not be true, but it is really nauseating to hear men swear either in fun or in earnest. And the only sure way to put an end to it is to show derision rather than pleasure when it is done in one's presence.

By the will of Mrs. Frank Leslie, of New York, nearly $1,500,000 is left for the suffrage cause. That amount will be turned over to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who will spend it for the furtherance of equal suffrage. The will of Mrs. Leslie who had the title of Baroness de Bazar, left cash and property valued at $1,800,000, and provided that all but about $200,000 was to be given to Mrs. Catt to be used entirely at her discretion, the only proviso being that the suffrage cause shall benefit.

President Wilson has joined the Washington City union of Journeymen Stone Masons, that is the American Red Cross Memorial Building in Washington has sent him an honorary card. We have never heard of the President being an expert with the trowel and other tools used by the masons, but are ready to back our judgment that he will make good in that order, as he does in every other thing he sets his hands and head to.

The Lexington convention demonstrated that the G. O. P. elephant has entirely swallowed the Bull Moose, who were there in great numbers, painting for the operation. The utmost harmony that prevailed showed how easily the republicans can get together when they appreciate the necessity. Democrats would do well to emulate their example.

Rev. John Hargan, a Methodist preacher, aged 89, is a petit juror in the Hardin circuit court. As the old fellow could have escaped jury service on two counts—too old and a minister of the gospel—one is constrained to the belief that he has a method in his madness.

The political wisecracker of the Lexington Leader says that Judge L. W. Bethuram, of Rochester, is one of the "live wire" politicians of the Eighth district. The judge is a live wire all right, but he happens to live in the Eleventh, as the political writer should have known.

The fiscal court of Daviess county has given an order that dances in the armory must stop at 2 A. M. Good. It is a pity that the order can not extend from one end of the country to the other and include dances that are held in other places as well as those in armories.

Story of a Green Package

Who I am and what I am doing may be of interest to you. The first thing I remember of my cutting any figure in the affairs of life was when I was tied up in a neat little bundle and a lady took me tenderly into her hands and carried me to her home. I was certainly glad to get away from the noise and confusion of the business world. On my way to the lady's home I met quite a number of packages just like myself, some large, some small, but each owner of a package seemed to be in quite good spirits and talked about what they saw and used such expressions as, "I'm pretty," "I'm cheap," "I'm a little money," etc. I heard so much of this kind of talk that I was very proud of my birthplace, and soon learned that I was very much of a package.

Miss Bessie Pendleton Becomes Mrs. E. A. Cartwright.

Miss Bessie Pendleton, daughter of the late George and Jennie Withers Pendleton, was married on May 29th to Mr. E. A. Cartwright, a prominent traveling representative of a big plumbing concern. The marriage occurred at Bowling Green, where the bride has lived for the last several months. It was a quiet, but pretty affair, and the pair have since been spending their honeymoon traveling over the country, visiting the most important cities and sights East of the Mississippi. They are now located at Petersburg, Va., where Mrs. Cartwright writes that they are very happily domiciled. She is delighted with the Old Dominion and says the people of her adopted home have been exceedingly kind and attentive to her. The bride will be remembered as an excellent young woman and an attractive one. Her friends and relatives join in the wish that she will always be very happy and that one and her husband will never have cause to regret the important step they have taken. "K.S."

Hammonds—Young.

At the Vermont Hotel at 1:30 yesterday afternoon Dr. D. M. Walker united in marriage Rev. Luther Young, of Columbia, and Miss Rose Hammonds, of Danville. They drove up in an auto with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carson, of Phil., who stood with them during the ceremony. Quite a number of Stanford people were invited to witness the marriage and did so. Rev. Young is pastor of the Christian churches of Antioch, Green River, Guin Link and McKinney and is a most promising young divine. The bride is the daughter of Dr. L. E. Hammonds, a successful physician of the Danville section of Casey and is a very attractive young woman. After the ceremony the party drove to Liberty, where Rev. and Mrs. Young will spend several days, going later to her home for a visit. They will likely locate at Columbia.

A UNIQUE RECORD

Very Few Like It In Our Broad Republic.

Grateful testimony for Doan's Kidney Pills, published everywhere is of itself convincing evidence of merit. Confirmed testimony forms still stronger evidence. Years ago, a citizen of this locality gratefully acknowledged the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the proof more convincing. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills—the record is unique.

John T. Barnett, carpenter, Rowland, Ky., says: "I have used many kidney medicines in the past few years, but Doan's Kidney Pills was the only one that gave me relief. My work calls for heavy lifting and much stooping. This weakened my kidneys and caused attacks of lumbago and a severe ache across the small of my back. I also had other annoyances caused by weak kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Barnett said: "I have had no return of kidney complaint since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I look upon the benefit as permanent."

REGAINS FORMER LIFE AND ENERGY

Miss Fannie B. Robinson Tells How She Was Benefited From Tanlac

Louisville, Ky., June 18.—Miss Fannie B. Robinson, of the millinery firm of Robinson & Blomer, at 1628 West Market street, this city, a successful and widely known business woman, says she found relief from Tanlac after trying other remedies with no permanent benefit.

"I was in a rundown condition," she explained recently, "and I seemed to have very poor circulation. I suffered from very severe headaches, and my sleep was uncertain. I was nervous and lacked energy."

"I tried different physicians and different remedies without getting any relief. One day I read an article in the paper about Tanlac. Everyone says it is fine. I feel that I owe a great deal to the person who suggested that to me. My trouble has disappeared since I began taking this medicine. I am full of energy and vigor, eat heartily, and sleep like a child. My nerves are in fine shape, and my friends have noticed what a change has come over me. Tanlac did it all, and I am glad to say so publicly."

Tanlac, the peerless preparation, is of especial value for its tonic qualities. In cases of languor, poor appetite, sleeplessness, faulty circulation, catarrhal trouble and rheumatism it has proved a remarkable benefit. Ascertains have testified.

This remedy is now on sale in Stanford at Penny's Drug Store.

May Be McClesney's Secretary.

Lexington Friends of Hon. Shelton M. Saulley, of the Stanford later Journal, were not surprised at his appointment as campaign manager for H. V. McClesney, the Statewide candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Mr. Saulley and his paper were enthusiastic supporters of Governor J. C. W. Beckham for the United States Senate and since the announcement of Mr. McClesney who, it is generally conceded, is backed by the Beckham-Haley organization, Mr. Saulley has been one of his most active lieutenants. Mr. Saulley, who is well-known in Lexington, where some years ago he was the managing editor of the old Morning Democrat, passed thru this city en route to Frankfort, where he has assumed charge of the McClesney headquarters and has begun an active campaign for his chief. It is reported on good authority that in the event of Mr. McClesney's nomination and election that Mr. Saulley will be his private secretary—Lexington Leader.

Difference Between Miss and Mrs.
A second grade teacher had difficulty in getting the children to distinguish between Miss and Mrs. They would insist on saying one or the other, but the distinction more clear, she said, "John what is the difference between Miss and Mrs?"

Whereupon John, one of the slowest children in the room, startled her with the answer, "Mister."

$300 Reward for Sloan.

Governor McClesney has offered $300 reward for the arrest of Marion Sloan, wanted in this county for assaulting and killing his daughter. The killing occurred at Quicksand Saturday evening. The offer of reward was requested by the county judge, who stated in this communication that Sloan attacked his daughter about a year ago, striking her over the head with a hammer, causing her mind to become deranged.
